ALLEN JACK+COTTIER PROMOTIONS ANNOUNCED

Sydney, 29 September 2009

The change in season has brought a change in the ranks at Allen Jack+Cottier (AJ+C). We are proud to announce the promotions of the following 8 dedicated team members for their valuable contributions to the company's success:

We have two new Directors, John Whittingham and Scott Norton. Scott started with AJ+C whilst completing his degree in architecture in 1996 and now applies his knowledge in residential and interior design as Director of Interior Architecture.

John is taking over from retired Principal Glynn Evans to head up our Seniors Living team. His experience in residential design spans aged care and affordable student housing. During his 12 years at AJ+C, John has led several landmark projects, including two award-winning sport+recreation halls at Lake Ainsworth and Berry, NSW.

Two members of the Seniors Living team that have also received promotions are Richard Terry and Lujza Buzevska. Richard has been promoted to Senior Associate, and Lujza is now a Senior Consultant. Lilian Tan, who is currently working with the team on 250 Independent Living Units in Miranda, has been promoted to Senior Architect.

Dua Green has earned her new title of Associate through her involvement in student housing in New Zealand, Western Australia and Sydney.

In our Graphics and Communications studio, Graphic Designer and Manager Nic Bailey has been promoted to Senior Associate. Nic has been with AJ+C since 1993 and is our accomplished in-house photographer. Graphic Designer Jennifer Chung is going into her 10th year with the practice and is now an Associate.

The success of AJ+C is due to our talented staff. We congratulate and thank these valuable team members for their dedication and contribution to the practice.
